

REHIS ANNUAL ENVIRONMENTAL HEALTH FORUM
29/30 APRIL 2020
THE CARNEGIE CONFERENCE CENTRE, DUNFERMLINE

‘ENVIRONMENTAL HEALTH PARTNERSHIPS’

The Institute will present this year’s Annual Environmental Health Forum at The Carnegie Conference Centre on Wednesday 29 and Thursday 30 April.

Wednesday 29 April – full day plenary

Confirmed speakers at the plenary sessions include: Angela Leitch, Chief Executive, Public Health Scotland; Dona Milne, Director of Public Health, NHS Fife; Iain Clunie, Zero Waste Scotland; Nigel Kerr, Environmental Protection Scotland; Dr Matthew Davies, Killgerm Chemicals Ltd; Rick Brunt, Head of Operational Strategy, Health and Safety Executive; Ian McWatt, Acting Chief Executive, Food Standards Scotland; and Claire Baker MSP.

Awards, diplomas and certificates will be presented at the Annual Presentation Awards which commences at 3.30pm for 3.50pm.

Thursday 30 April – full day of workshops

The four themed interactive and participative sessions cover the usual wide range of topics: food safety and food standards; occupational health and safety; public health and housing; and pollution control/environmental protection.

Forum Delegate Fees

Day 1 Members £100.00 - £120.00/Non-Members £150.00.

Day 2 Members £100.00 - £120.00/Non-Members £150.00.

Discount of 7.5% has been agreed for delegates attending both days.

The final programme has now been published.